THE COUNSELING COLLABORATIVE

PRESENTS

Intimate Partner Violence Training

2 Part Series

Part 1: Friday, February 15 9:00am-4:00pm

Part 2: Friday, March 15 9:00am-4:00pm

Location: J&B Atlantic Building -142 Main Street, Ellsworth, ME

Some Learning Objectives Include:

(Full Program Description at www.tccmaine.com)

1. Trauma-informed, empowerment-based interventions with survivors.
2. Using Risk Assessment, rather than a Mental Health Assessment, when exploring a client's coercive or violent behaviors toward their partner.
3. Recognize the barriers faced by immigrants/refugees/asylees/LGBTQ populations who are victims/survivors & perpatrators
4. Identify and use best practice guidelines for working with diverse populations affected by IPV.
5. Safety & Separation Planning and Survivors and children/ custody issues

EACH PART = 6 CONTINUING EDUCATION HOURS

Come to just 1 Part, or both

total of 12 CE's meets new licensure requirements for 2020

Amy Coha, MSW, LCSW is a Clinical Associate Professor at the University of New England, School of Social Work. She works with individuals with mental illness and substance abuse issues & survivors of battering. Coha was Associate Director of the Domestic Violence Project/SAFE House in Ann Arbor, Michigan for 15 years. She has presented workshops and seminars for social workers and other mental health professionals on assessment, intervention, and ethical issues on Intimate Partner Violence at: Sweetser Training Institute, NASW Annual Conference, and Friday Seminar Series, Maine Medical Center's Grand Rounds, Tri-County Mental Health Services, & UNE-School of Social Work. In 2008 Ellen Ridley of Family Crisis Services and Coha received a grant from the Bingham Foundation exploring the experiences of victims/survivors of abuse/battering when seeking mental health counseling.

THE COUNSELING COLLABORATIVE
(207)288-3388
www.tccmaine.com

FEE: $99 for 1 Part, $185 for 2 Parts
(after Feb 4th $115 for 1, $200 for 2)
REGISTER at www.tccmaine.com