

THE COUNSELING COLLABORATIVE

PRESENTS

Friday, March 9th - 9am-1pm

Moore Community Center Theater - Ellsworth, ME

The Intersection of Technology and Ethics in Providing Mental Health Services in Rural Maine

OBJECTIVES:

1. Provide a safe forum to talk about today's ethics and technology
2. Explore and discuss how online services, internet, cell phones and other relevant technology impact our rural work with clients, agencies and communities.
3. Explore how today's technology impact and intersects our professional's codes of ethics

4 CONTINUING EDUCATION CONTACT HOURS

Wanda Anderson is a native of Northern Maine. She has been a faculty member at the University of New England, MSW Program since 2003. Her area of interests include: Working with Children and Families, Sexual Abuse Issues, Special Needs Children, Case Management, Working with Adult Survivors, Poverty Issues and Strength Based Services. Wanda is the Coordinator for Online Field Education and has presented extensively on Social Work Ethics, to include: Rural Social Work, Ethical Decision Making Models, and Ethical Supervision. She has resided in Georgia, South Carolina, Nevada, Hawaii, Augusta and Portland prior to moving back to Northern Maine.

The Counseling Collaborative
(207)288-3388
www.tccmaine.com

Registration Fee: $125
Pre-Registration Encouraged
Email: Milja@tccmaine.com
Call: 207-288-3388